Perseverance

- Interdependent Collaboration
- Synthesizer
- Lifelong (Immersive) Learning

Perspective

- Global Mindset (Diversity & Inclusion)
- Coaching Mindset
- Whole Brain® Thinking

Our primary market includes the Learning & Development and/or Talent departments of companies recognized by Interbrand Best Global Brands and multinational corporations, including Credit Suisse, Coca-Cola, Estee Lauder, Daimler, Kellogg, Dell, Google, Yale-NUS, Unilever, Johnson & Johnson, Microsoft, and the Institute of Executive Coaching and Leadership (IECL).

We collaborate with our clients to ensure the integration of the leadership program, executive coaching, and assessment of choice in order to strategically deliver on the leadership imperative and the promise of the organization to all of its stakeholders, clients and employees. Our unique value proposition provides you with the following services:

- Global Talent and Capabilities Development
- Developing Effective Teams
- Leadership with a Coaching Mindset
- Coaching for Performance, Potential and Well-Being™

We construct, integrate and coordinate the coaching component to ingrain the leadership learning in each executive, so as to accelerate individual and team performance. Our audience experience and capabilities include emerging, high-potential, and C-level/executive leaders. We serve clients across seventeen (17) time zones with multiple telepresence technologies.

Our approach is global, holistic and assimilates the leadership architecture, and competencies with the Hogan Domain Model of Executive Development, Coaching Mindset Index™ (CMI), as well as coaching to maximize executive potential and performance -- which increases the ROI of the leadership engagement. This approach encourages the participants to integrate the learning from the program, assessment(s) and coaching and ensures the success of all: the program provider, client organization, participant, participant's manager, HR business partner, and executive coach.
